General Information

Introduction to Info Source

Info Source describes the programs and activities, and the information holdings related to programs and activities, of government institutions subject to the Access to Information Act to facilitate the right of access. It also provides individuals, including current and former employees of the Government of Canada, with relevant information to access personal information about themselves held by government institutions subject to the Privacy Act and to exercise their rights under the Privacy Act.

An index of institutions that are subject to the Access to Information Act and the Privacy Act is available centrally.

The Access to Information Act and the Privacy Act assign overall responsibility to the President of Treasury Board (as the designated Minister) for the government-wide administration of the legislation.

Background

Revera Inc. has been a wholly owned subsidiary of the Public Sector Pension Investment Board (<http://www.investpsp.ca>) (PSP Investments) since 2006. PSP Investments is a Crown corporation established by Parliament by the Public Sector Pension Investment Board Act in 1999. PSP Investments reports to Parliament through the President of the Treasury Board, who is responsible for PSP Investments' legislation, and includes certain information about Revera in its report.

Responsibilities

Revera Inc. specializes in managing high-quality senior living real estate assets in Canada and the United States.

Classes of Personal Information

Classes of personal information describe personal information which is not used for administrative purposes (a decision-making process that directly affects the individual to whom the personal information pertains) nor is it intended to be retrievable by personal identifiers. While conducting the activities of Revera Inc., categories of personal information may be accumulated which are not contained in specific information banks described in this chapter.

Unsolicited Communications

Such information could include unsolicited opinions, enquiries, complaints, and general correspondence received from external organizations and individuals. The personal information contained in this class normally includes the name, and address of the individual; however, this form of personal information may exist in a fragmented form and may not always be retrievable by any personal identifier. The retention periods associated with these classes of personal information are consistent with the general subject files wherein they are stored.

Manuals

For the purposes of Info Source, manuals are defined as instructions, handbooks or procedures used by employees to carry out institutional programs or activities that affect the general public. Manuals that meet this definition include:

- Access to Information Manual and Procedure
- Privacy Policy and Privacy Procedure Privacy Policy and related procedures
